1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1 line 13 after "tube" the phrase – so that it rotates at— has been inserted and the phrase "to rotate" has been deleted.

Line 14 after "grooves" the phrase – of the stopping tube—has been inserted.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claim 1 defines over the prior art of record by claiming "An activation device for a damper having a piston assembly and a piston rod assembly provided with a piston rod which has an axial passage defined in the piston rod and a fluid hole defined in a side face of the piston rod, the activation device comprising: a stopping tube adapted to be securely received in the piston rod and having grooves defined in a peripheral edge of the stopping tube and first teeth formed on the peripheral edge of the stopping tube; a driving tube adapted to be movably received in the piston rod and in the stopping tube and having second teeth formed on a peripheral edge of the driving tube; and a rotating tube adapted to be movably received in the piston rod and having third teeth engaged with the second teeth so that the movement of the driving tube is able to drive the rotating tube so that it rotates at an angle to selectively allow a corresponding one of the third teeth to be received in the grooves of the stopping tube such that communication between the axial passage and the space is selectively plugged.

The prior art of record does not anticipate or render obvious applicant's claimed invention as set forth in claim 1.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
